

The Blitz
By Bishop Kenneth Sims
January 16, 2012

The BLITZ is designed to come against our marriages, our families, to destroy our children, our nation, friends and loved ones. It is designed to cripple the unity in the body of Christ and to stop the advancement of the Kingdom of God on this planet.

So what is the blitz? Adolf Hitler used the term blitz, which means relentless attacking and bombardment. Hitler's Luftwaffe, a generic German term for an air force, bombed London in World War II. It was one of the most tenacious, most advanced, and most battle-experienced air forces in the world. Although, the aircraft that were to serve in the Luftwaffe were technically superior to that of most nations, Winston Churchill encouraged the citizens of London to make it their finest hour. They endured and survived Hitler's onslaught.

Football is another arena where the term blitz is used. It means to rush the quarterback and put pressure on him - to crush him. This technique involves several defensive players.

Satan has called the BLITZ. He wants to kill you. His purpose is to stop the mandate that God has assigned to you. He's bent on destroying as many souls as he can. Get ready believers, the pressure is coming stronger. We must be devoted to both resisting and preventing aggression.

JOHN 10:10 The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.

Idle believers pose no threat to the devil. Actually, he has a fetish for lukewarm Christians and enjoys toying and manipulating them. When one is lukewarm, he knows they are not serious enough to suggest a threat to him, because they are too involved with the world, the lust of the flesh and the pride of life. Many will suffer because they were unprepared.

Ephesians 6:13 Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness...

The Word of God tells us to stand; having done all, 'STAND'. It's time to make a solid front - one that cannot be breached. We must lock arms. Lock and load regardless of our denominational background.

Satan has monopolized division in the body, and has succeeded in the art of divide and conquer. To break this yoke, we must sound the alarm and call a solemn assembly. The trumpet must be heard in the Church. Leaders must fall on their faces before God. The world is asleep in the dark. We must awake in the light. Let us make this our finest hour.

God give us strength and courage to do it!

Taken Away

By Evangelist Patrick Sims

At three o'clock Friday morning on January 13, 2012, my husband returned to bed. After spending time in the presence of the Lord, he had a supernatural experience and spoke of death. As he wrapped his arms around me, he warned that there would be something very different about him.

Anyone who knows Bishop Sims, knows that there is something already very unique about him. I thought: Lord, could this man be any more peculiar than he already is? Yet, I connected with his statement and realized that it will be a deeper place, a higher place - than what he was previously accustomed to. Only in Jesus can you go deeper and higher at the same time. But then, Jesus is the root and the offspring. That too is a conundrum (a thing hard to figure), but relatable by the Holy Spirit.

Initially, I wasn't sure of what he was telling me, but I know that there is at least one more major thing to take place in his life: the training institute (a supplement to the churches) for the building of a spiritual Army for the Kingdom of God. This was one of three major events prophesied in 1979 during our tour in Germany and the only one yet to be fulfilled. The training center will be different from the twenty years that we spent pastoring a congregation. This time each person will be returning to their congregation as pastor or co-laborers with a pastor. It is a mandate from the Father so we are excited and working towards that end.

Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

Ken spoke to me of a spiritual death, but of in a different way. I pondered it for a few minutes before returning to sleep. Generally, when one thinks of spiritual death, it is not a good thing; because it is separation from God. In this case, it is death to anything that desires to separate him from God.

Sacrificing Bullocks and Doves

More people than I have ever heard of are on a 21-day Daniel's fast (sacrificing bullocks and doves), including the church that we attend. By sacrificing bullocks and doves, I mean not eating meat.

My spiritual senses are heightened during a consecrated fast. Notice, I said consecrated. I'm not talking about just getting hungry for a few minutes while watching a favorite secular program on television. I'm talking about sanctifying and dedicating oneself for a sacred purpose: television off, plate down, phone off, etcetera – in exchange for a closer walk with God.

Again, I drifted off to sleep and as the Spirit would have it, I had a spiritual dream. I've been having divine dreams since I was born again at the age of seventeen.

Pastor Ray Weary reminded us in his message on Wednesday night of Habakkuk 2:2 Then the LORD answered me and said: "Write the vision and make it plain on tablets, that he may run who reads it."

I awoke with a feeling of great dread and uneasiness and knew that I had to arise and write the dream down. There are visions of the head (your minds eye) and visions in the head (your spirit man), particularly during a dream. I will share bits and pieces of this dream with you.

Before proceeding, it is necessary for you to read Habakkuk 2:3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time; but at the end, it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it tarries, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. 4 Behold the proud, his soul is not upright in him; but the just shall live by his faith.

The dream is for an appointed time. However, time is not as long as it has been and not as short as it is going to be. Time that is for eternity has no end. Therefore, it really doesn't matter whether you are a pre-tribulationist, mid-tribulationist, post-tribulationist, agnostic or atheist. The fact is the Bible declares, "There will be a Great Tribulation period on earth before the return of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He will return to the Mount of Olives, just as he left from the Mount of Olives

Matthew 24:21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

Revelation 2:22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

Revelation 7:14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they, which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Let me stress that this is not meant to be a doom and gloom word. That being said, warning always comes before destruction. We know that biblical prophecies will inevitably happen. Yet we have the responsibility of occupying until Jesus comes. Occupying is a militant term. Like Jesus, we must be about our Father's business. God has given us permission to take back everything that the enemy has stolen.

Mark 16:15 And Jesus said unto them, “Go into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

¹⁶He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

¹⁷And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

¹⁸They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.”

¹⁹So then after the Lord had spoken unto them; he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

²⁰And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

Sometimes, my dreams are symbolic. Other times, they are very specific and reveal people, places and things involved in incidents.

Nevertheless, in this dream, we were in the beginning of the middle of the seven-year tribulation. That might be as clear as mud, but there is a first 3-1/2 years of the tribulation. The last 3-1/2 years is referred to as the Great Tribulation. It felt very real - uncanny. I know that someday, a woman will have the same exact feelings during that end-time period. Several hours later in the day, I was still having difficulty shaking the way it felt.

Some of the brothers wanted us to fight with natural guns and called ahead to warn us that the anti-christ's regiment were on their way to our location. Bishop Sims and I were living in a big house that I had never seen before. Many of the saints, along with children and infants, were there.

It seemed that only five minutes had passed, after the warning, when an infiltrator pulled up in a golf-cart. Ironically, it was a female. She came to spy on us in preparation of our arrest. We were all being readied to leave and knew we could never come back.

Like the Jews, during the holocaust, who were taken from their homes, never to return. Everything they worked for was discarded. Many were wealthy, but money could not save them. Millions of men, women and children died horrible deaths in gas chambers, thinking that they were being sent to take a shower.

When my husband was stationed in Germany, some of our dear German friends from Furstentfeldbrook took us to Dachau, a former concentration camp. Though many years had passed, we could still smell the stench of burnt human flesh. It was so disgusting.

Going down hundreds of steps into Hitler's bunkers, was like being back in that timeframe. My imagination was running away with me. It seemed that we would never reach the bottom. What we saw down there was nothing short of amazing. It was built as an underground fortress. There was a tunnel for Hitler to utilize in case of a surprise attack. He could gain access to the Eagle's Nest on top of the mountain and vice versa. We saw pictures of males and females who were reduced to skeletons with the skin on, because many were literally starved to death and stacked one on top of the other.

Hitler declared himself as God and was so diabolical that many thought that he was the anti-christ. He had such a gross disregard for human life. History tells us that he made lampshades out of skin from the buttocks of some of these prisoners.

Many thought that Hitler was the actual anti-christ, because of some of his practices and gross disregard for human life. History tells us that he made lampshades out of skin from the buttocks of some of these prisoners. The sad news is that the anti-christ will make Hitler seem like a sweet little grandmother.

The infiltrator watched everybody in our home, but was unaware that we were aware of who she was. When she went into another room, I tried to warn a local pastor by phone of what was happening, but he was clueless. He spoke of getting together with my husband and I, and was not comprehending the message I was trying to convey to him. I had to switch my conversation, because the guardian came back into the room where I was. The pastor is one that we know and have worshipped with in his local church many times. I was determined to try later to get the message to him, because he was so unprepared. Unfortunately, that will be the case of many leaders and thus the state of many churchgoers.

The infiltrator had no fear for she knew that there was nothing that anyone could do to stop her. She determined to carry out orders of the anti-christ. When she went into another area of our house, I was trying to hide snacks for the babies and children that would be made to take this journey. It was very difficult, because she supernaturally sensed what was happening even though she was in another room. We had to steal what we bought and paid for - our own food.

Scripture tell us in Revelation 13:16, He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads,¹⁷ and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Bishop was up again when I woke up so I shared the dream with him before getting up to write it down. There was no way I could go back to sleep. If you are feeling nervous right now, you need to settle your spirit with the Word of God as I did.

The Bible is Truth and there is no way around it. If God said it, that settles it. It is established and forever settled in heaven. It will come to pass. The world as we know it will pass away, but His Word never will. Will some of us have to be martyrs as the disciples were? Absolutely! Don't fret about that.

The Lord told me several years ago, that when His grace is needed in our lives for a particular task, it will be supplied at the moment that it is needed. That was a revelation for me. You may be one who will have to seal your testimony by having your blood spilled by man during this season. If so, at the necessary moment, God will saturate you with grace and peace.

No matter how death comes to us, it's just a gateway into the presence of God for all eternity. Remember, it is decreed in 1 Corinthians that He has taken the sting out of death. Though none of us want to die, it's refreshing to know that death will not hurt us. Be comforted by this fact.

I Corinthians 15:55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

⁵⁶*The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.*

⁵⁷*But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.*

⁵⁸*Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.*

Death only hurts if you are unrighteous at the time of your death.

Why? The wages of sin is death. Romans 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. Jesus paid for every man's sin.

We have to accept the salvation that He purchased – that He died to give us. If you fail to get forgiveness, you will have to pay for your own sins. Hmm!

John 3:18 He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

When we accept Jesus, no-thing tangible or intangible can separate us from Him.

Romans 8:35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

³⁶*As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.*

³⁷No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

³⁸For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

³⁹Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Lord has to warn us because often we get too comfortable in this world. We take up residence and act as if we are here to stay. We are in this world but called out from it. He lovingly reminds us that we are Pilgrims passing through. The Lord chastises those that he loves, to protect us from the destruction to come.

Be encouraged! Nothing and no one can separate us from Him – no matter what.

A Revelation

I was reading in the Bible yesterday and two terms were illuminated in the scripture. I Chronicles 29:29 ^{Now} the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer. Of course, I've seen the terms Seer and Prophet in the Bible numerous times. Since they were highlighted in my spirit, I became curious. I have always used them interchangeably and that's okay, because it's like separating the colors of the rainbow. The colors tend to bleed over into each other. It's not necessary to make a big deal out of distinguishing one from the other, because they are both important gifts from God to the body of Christ for edification.

This was deposited in my spirit after my end-time dream: Though a seer can be a prophet and vice versa, they are slightly different. What I experienced in the dream this morning was in the office of a Seer. In short, a Seer sees and a Prophet hears. Both deliver an inspired prophetic word because of a revelation from God placed in their spirit man. That makes a lot of sense, huh? My husband is a Prophet and a Seer. I'm more of a Seer, who prophesies - sometimes.

Unlike many of the prophets today, the prophets of old were not popular. Quite the contrary. They didn't always have a good, relaxing word that everybody wanted to hear and applaud. Old school prophets from years ago or from the Old Testament were not concerned with itching ears. If God said it, they delivered it, regardless to who liked it – or not. God's word is balanced and balances us out when we receive the WHOLE counsel of God.

RESTORATION 2012

The Lord seems to have developed a trend with me for each coming new year. In the month of December, he downloads one word to my main frame (my spirit). I don't look for it, it just happens. December 2011, that word was: RESTORATION.

Restore means to repay, reinstate, re-establish, bring back, return, refurbish, renovate, repair, rebuild recondition, fix and SAVE.

The Lord gave that word to me for the body of Christ for 2012. It's really up to you, to appropriate it in your lives. Go after it. Take back what belongs to you, by the authority that Jesus gave to you. Get violent with the devil and reclaim your salvation in Christ Jesus, your marriage, your children, your property, your finances, your mind, your relationships, your family – you get the picture.

You will only get to another place if you leave where you are. When you get there, there you are. Another place, maybe another horizon.

The Lord gave the children of Israel, the land of Canaan, but they had to take it – possess it. Yes, there were giants in the land, but God is the biggest Giant. Our Giant God can beat their giants. He has us covered. We must appropriate the promises of God.

And a Child Shall Lead Them

Shekinah Weary is five years old and is one of our spiritual granddaughters. She had a dream on Friday night, (December 30th 2011) about my husband, whom she calls Brother Bishop. When she woke up, she was very eager to share it with her parents: Pastors Ray and Gloria. Shekinah described the place as being like the festival of lights, where her parents had taken her the week prior to see Christmas lights. Brother Bishop was riding a camel and everyone had on white shirts. She saw a playmate, little Lorenzo. His mother, Kellia and other people were there shucking corn. She called it peeling corn. There is much symbolism in this dream so I highlighted key words.

(On New Year's Eve, Pastor Gloria prophesied that God was giving Bishop a new generation of young people, but she did not make the connection with her daughter's dream until later.)

It's Harvest Time

So what does this baby's dream mean? In this dream, white is significant of a ready harvest.

John 4:35b Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest! ³⁶ And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together.

Shucking corn is also significant of the harvest. If a milky (white) liquid spurts out, it is ready and should be picked immediately.

As Christians, we should each be a festival of lights for the world to see – a celebration of the Light. (Matthew 5:16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.) Living for Jesus is so exciting.

Camels are commonly used for the conveyance of 'special' messages, carrying great burdens, traveling long distances and enduring great privations (lack of usual comforts and necessities). They are indigenous to the desert and have the ability to adapt to very hot or very cold temperatures.

The Hebrew word for camel is gamal and means to REPAY or compensate. (Remember the one word to me for 2012 is RESTORATION, which also means to repay.)

Isaiah 60:6 The wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you. ⁶ The multitude of camels shall cover your land, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; All those from Sheba shall come; They shall bring gold and incense, And they shall proclaim the praises of the LORD.

The Greek word for camel is dromos and means a runner. John the Baptist was a forerunner, making straight the path of the Lord. We are forerunners for Jesus' return. In Abraham's time, camels were used in war. How powerful is that? Wow! Out of the mouth of babes.

We celebrate Joel 2:28 And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. ²⁹ And also on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

TESTIMONIES

Thank you to all who participated in making "Celebrating 365 Days of Gratitude" a successful 'splash day' on Amazon - December 14, 2011.

From doctors to housewives, various authors from around the world contributed to this project. We aimed for the moon and landed among the stars – the top 20 ranking for that day. All proceeds from the book on Amazon go to Feeding America, Women for Women International and the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. It's a gift that continues to give, I'm grateful to be a co-author.

Finally, I finished my book, "Eye Witness." The primary focus is on the miracle resurrection of my husband in 2003, but also contains brief testimonies about eye witnessed miracles in my family. We anticipate making it available to the public sometime in the Spring.

Update

I shared a story with you during the Christmas season concerning a young handmaiden of the Lord. She is eleven years old and correct name is Luz. Her name means light. I incorrectly spelled it Luce in a December newsletter.

Thank you for being a Covenant Intercessory Partner.

We love you and pray for you continually!

Expectantly,
The Sims Family
